

Telegraph.co.uk Utility companies 'face £700m cost' for delay in fitting smart meters
Telegraph.co.uk One senior executive said the smart meter delay could add an extra £700m in costs across the sector while the Conservative Party's election campaign pledge to cut £100 from 17 million energy bills wipes hundreds of millions of pounds from earnings.

Toda la noticia: Smart: Google Noticias